

Israel Unveiled

Jihad, Power, Propaganda: Hamas Unmasked

Speaker: Sandy Wezowicz

Podcast: Israel Unveiled Episode #13

Summary

This episode pulls the mask off Hamas. Far from being a grassroots liberation movement, Hamas is a radical jihadist organization born from the Muslim Brotherhood, fueled by global funding, and empowered by propaganda. The consequences? A humanitarian nightmare in Gaza and ongoing terror in Israel.

Key Points

1. Two Populations Held Hostage

- Israeli citizens brutally attacked on October 7.
- Ordinary Gazans who oppose Hamas and suffer under its rule.

2. Radical Roots

- Hamas emerged from a 20th-century Islamic revival movement sparked by the fall of the Ottoman Empire.
- The Muslim Brotherhood aimed to revive Islamic dominance through jihad and cultural purging.

3. Hamas Defined

- Founded in 1987 as a political arm of the Brotherhood.
- Charter calls for Israel's obliteration and eternal jihad until Islamic rule is fully restored.

4. Propaganda and Perception

- Hamas gained power through image management—schools, hospitals, and “social good.”
- But behind the curtain: tunnels, rockets, child soldiers, and stolen foreign aid.

5. The World's Role

- Billions in aid meant for humanitarian purposes funneled into terror infrastructure.
- Hamas leaders live in luxury abroad while Gazans face starvation and unemployment

Discussion Questions

1. How does understanding Hamas's ideological foundation change the conversation about Gaza?
2. In what ways has propaganda shaped Western perceptions of Hamas?
3. What responsibility does the global community bear for unintentionally funding terror?
4. How can believers respond with both truth and compassion?

Prayer Points

- For freedom and healing for Gazans living under Hamas's control
- For peace and restoration for Israeli families affected by terror
- For global clarity and courage to confront the truth
- For the dismantling of terror networks and the rise of true peacebuilders
